Time	Commentary
70:00	NZL put their hands up in joy. They are the third team to qualify for the World Cup. In the end it was a solid 4-2 win over MAS, although they did have an early scare. Their bench runs on to celebrate with the rest of the team.
67:34	Incident Unfortunately for HARI he won't be on the pitch if NZL qualify tonight as he is yellow carded and is off
64:36	Goal NZL goal. A terrible back pass should seal the result for NZL. Malaysia tried a back pass, which was touched to slow it down even more, leaving it sitting up in the circle with no one around. Bevan HARI is first there and hammers the ball home first time for NZL. They celebrate. 4-2 NZL
63:07	NZL try to press MAS in the corner
61:13	Less than ten minutes and NZL will have a spot in the World Cup. They need to keep focus though, MAS are pushing forward
57:25	NZL holding on to the ball at the back. The longer the score stays like this the happier they will be. They are in no rush to pass it forward
52:00	MAS possessing the ball around the back. NZL try to pressure and MAS hit it long over the sideline
49:00	NZL long corner
46:59	Goal MAS goal. Kuhan SHANMUGANATHAN fires a flick into the top right corner and has the NZL defenders ducking for cover. Great flick, MAS back in it. 3-2 NZL
46:34	The flick hits the first runner. Another PC
46:01	MAS get another PC. Can they convert this time
44:47	MAS shoot wide with their PC. They ask for another, but a free hit is given to NZL for an infringement near the goal

44:23	MAS PC
40:45	MAS change their GK, giving their second GK, Kumar SUBRAMANIAM a run
39:46	SHAW fires another drag flick towards the net, but this time the MAS GK is quick to get down and save. MAS clear
39:24	NZL PC
37:38	Goal NZL goal. NZL double their lead from a PC, with Hayden SHAW scoring with a powerful flick low to his left. 3-1 NZL
36:54	NZL PC
34:49	Goal NZL goal. Dean COUZINS hits a hard pass into the circle which Simon CHILD spectacularly deflects into the top left hand corner of the goal from the top of the circle. 2-1 NZL
33:02	MAS should have taken the lead. Kevinder Singh MAKBUL SINGH wasn't quite ready for a pass at the back post
30:01	Incident Bevan HARI is called out and green carded for an earlier tackle as play had been allowed to play on for some time
29:00	Bryce COLLINS of NZL deflects a pass high and wide, only narrowly though
28:17	NZL long corner on their left
26:41	Incident KALI KAVANDAN is green carded for a chop style tackle
25:33	Logan Raj KALI KAVANDAN makes an interception for MAS and they counter attack
24:35	NZL long corner after Hayden SHAW slapped a hard pass into the circle
23:19	NZL long corner. NZL did break after Phillip BURROWS forced a turnover from MAS full back
21:33	MAS hold the ball at the back, waiting for an opening or NZL to come at them
18:35	Goal NZL goal. A terrible miss trap by MAS leads to NZL equalizing. Bradley SHAW hit a pass straight through the top of the circle that was miss trapped, allowing Lloyd STEPHENSON to latch onto the pass and tap in from close range on his reverse. 1-1
13:15	Goal MAS goal. Against the run of play MAS opening the scoring, with Ahmad TENGKU shooting the ball in the back of the net. 1-0 MAS
08:31	NZL PC. Hayden SHAW's flick is run down by MAS
05:12	NZL have had the better of the start, controlling most of the possession. They are yet to crack into MAS circle though
00:13	NZL look to go forward early
00:02	New Zealand (NZL) can qualify for the World Cup with a win over Malaysia

	(MAS), thanks to Japan's upset win. MAS will be hoping to win their second match of the tournament under darkening skies in Changzhou
