ASA Young Aquatic Organiser Award
Child Protection Acknowledgement

The ASA Child Welfare in Swimming document is called Wavepower and contains policies and procedures related to Child Welfare and Good Practice. This document is available to view on the ASA website www.britishswimming.org (Club information section) [1]. This document also contains the ASA Code of Ethics.

I acknowledge that I am aware of the current ASA Procedures and Guidelines relating to Child Welfare in Swimming and the Code of Ethics and that I have read and understood these documents. I further acknowledge and agree that whilst in attendance on the ASA Young Aquatic Organiser course and during the voluntary placement (unit 6), I agree to abide by the ASA Child Welfare in Swimming Procedures and Guidelines plus the ASA Code of Ethics.

……..…… ……..

Signature of Candidate Date

…… ……...

Signature of Parent/Guardian Date

[1] If you do not have access to the website to view the Child Protection Procedures and Guidelines, please feel free to contact the ASA for a photocopied version on 01509 615464.